Message from fellow member: The Exalted Ruler

Greetings Members,

July was a very busy month with the National Convention, This was a very informative adventure for me, but in all it was a good time. There were a few Resolutions that were voted on; "Some Good", "Some not so Good." I will post these in the Grill room for every member to see. We need to decide whether we want to put some of them into our By-Laws.

The Cruise Night's are going well, but we still need volunteers to help out.

We held the Vet's Dinner at the Lodge, it was enjoyed by all. Rich Hoon and Bob Vitulli with the help of other members and volunteers did a great job. Thanks to all for a good meal.

I am requesting that members not park in assigned parking spots or in the Fire Lanes, this is becoming a major problem and needs to stop.

The Clam Bake was held and all enjoyed it, thanks to Tom McGibbon and his crew.

August is going to be another very busy month with the State Picnic at the Lebanon Lodge, Meat bingo, Kid-fest, Bike runs, Right-Hand / Left-Hand Program going on all month and ending with an outing for the members that took part in the program. Also the Fisher-Cats ball game with the Vets, volunteers needed to chaperone this event.

In closing, Please say a prayer for all our members and service personal that are in harm's way protecting us and our country.

"GOD BE WITH THEM AND YOU"

Yours in Elkdom,
Dave Mulchahey
Exalted Ruler

It is getting harder to pick one member for the Elk of the Month, we have so many members that deserve the honor.

The Elk this month is always here when needed, and does a lot of volunteer work behind the scenes.

This month Steve Arlitt has the honor.

Steve, Thanks for all you do for the Lodge and our members

Fraternally yours,
