Greetings Members,

Well the warm weather is almost here, in between the rainy days and nights. We held the Bar-B.Q and the Blessing of the Bikes," in the rain" the food was cooked to perfection by Dean Landry and crew, and there were two brave people that weathered the storm and had their bikes blessed.

Cruise night has started. The weather was good the first week. The next week rain, but hang in there. It will get better.

The Flag Day Service and Ritual went excellent thanks to the officers and members that took part in the service. A special thanks to Joe Sr. for setting it up and inviting the Boy Scouts to take part in the service.

Watch for the sign-up for the right hand- left hand club. Remember that we still have Sunday Breakfast every Sunday at the Lodge. We need volunteers to help in the kitchen on Sundays. If you can help, please let us know. Some of the officers and I will be off to the Elks National Convention, at the end of June. I hope to bring back good news from them.

I would like to wish you all a Happy Fourth of July. Remember, the Lodge will be closed that day.

It is with a heavy heart that I ask you to remember the passing of our brother Elk, Richard (Dick) Walters, and all our members who have passed, also please say a prayer for all our service personnel who are in harm's way protecting us and our country "GOD BE WITH THEM"

Yours in Elkdom,
Dave Mulchahey
Exalted Ruler

Elk of the Month

This month I have decided to look to a member that is always there when needed. He has stepped up to the plate again by taking over the task of coordinating and overseeing Thursday Cruise Nights and has everything running smoothly.

This month the honor goes to Terry Carter.

Fraternally yours,
Dave Mulchahey, ER

Elks P.E.R.s Give Scholarships

Derry-Salem Elks Past Exalted Rulers Association recently gave out scholarships to several local students.

Samantha LaRosa and Stephanie Plucinski received the Joseph Wagenbach, PER Scholarships for college-bound seniors in high school. Michael Richardson and Elizabeth Steele earned the Eugene Lessard, PER Legacy Scholarships for children or grandchildren of Derry-Salem Elks members who are already in college. These scholarships are chosen annually.

The PER Association would like to thank everyone who participates in its fund-raisers. Your generosity allows us to give out these stipends to our community's future.
