OF THE YEAR

Greetings Members,

The month of May was a rewarding one starting with the Boy Scouts having their Cook Out in the Pavilion, hosted by our Lecturing Knight, Megan and other officers. It was a good time for all.

Next came the Youth Awards Banquet with Joe Morawski Sr. PER PPD and JOE LaRosa Jr. PER Making the Arrangements and MC-ing the function. The lodge gave out around 40 to 50 certificates and Scholarships. Rich Hoon awarded 2 scholarships in memory of Jackie Hoon PER. This is a new scholarship started this year and Rich plans to keep doing it every year.

We held Friday Night Supper on the 11th with a small turn out for supper, but Meat Bingo made up for it with a good turnout. I have been informed that we will be getting the meat from another supplier with a better selection of meat prizes in the future. Please try to attend the Friday Night Suppers as the price is very reasonable and food is cooked to perfection.

The Mothers Day Breakfast and Ritual Honoring all mothers, Past and Present, was a Great success, the kitchen help was kept very busy from 8:00 until 11:00, I would like to express my thanks for the job well done. Meals were served by Lodge Officers, after which we held the Ritual Service, and I thank all who participated in this service.

State Convention was held with our Lodge Officers and some members attending. This is always a fun time when we are not attending meetings.

Cruise Night is here again. Terry Carter is stepping up to the plate this year and overseeing the running of this event every Thursday night. Please see him if you can help him in any way, he need cooks and kitchen help, also many other tasks that it takes to run this lodge function every week. I want to thank all members that helped last year and hope they will do so this year.

Lodge Members “PLEASE” attend the Lodge meetings, this is where all the planning of functions and improvements of your lodge takes place and you're in-put is needed and wanted.

In closing let me remind you to remember our members who have passed, and our service personal that are in harm's way protecting us and our country.

“GOD BE WITH THEM”

Yours in Elkdom,
Dave Mulchahey
Exalted Ruler

The Elk of the month to Rich Hoon for all he has done with Elks National Foundation and the Scholarship Committee.

Rich Hoon receives the honor this month.

Fraternally yours,
