Message from fellow member: The Leading Knight

Greetings Members,

This is my first opportunity to be able to talk to the membership as a whole through the bulletin. The reason that I am writing this month's message is because Dave, our Exalted Ruler, is in the hospital. His surgery went well and his rehab is going good. As you all know, I have been acting Exalted Ruler since he has been out for his medical reasons. He has asked me to write this month's message.

We had a good time in October with the Jackie Hoon Memorial Bike Run and the Tailgate party. The bike run raised $670 for both breast cancer research and for the Christmas Food Baskets. Although I think that these functions were great, I was hoping to see more people attend these functions.

Functions are one of the major ways that we raise money for our lodge and for our committees (i.e. Christmas Food Baskets, golf league, etc.). As of late I have seen attendance for our functions and activities dwindle. We need to support each other in order to make our lodge great. We have a fantastic membership. We need to support one another in what we do.

Along with that I would love to see more involvement from the membership in activities. I hear all the time that "I would help if someone asked me." I praise the fact that you're willing to help, but let me encourage you to volunteer to help out rather than to wait for someone to ask you. Seek out the things that you may be interested in. If you don't know who to talk to, then ask one of the officers and they would be able to point you in the right direction. If you see someone working on something, maybe ask them if there is a way you can help. Increasing our volunteerism is one thing that I will push throughout my year serving as Exalted Ruler.

In closing, please remember our members and service personnel that are protecting us and our country to keep our home a safe place to live. A small prayer goes a long way. "God Be With Them and All Elks"

Yours in Elkdom,
Joe Morawski Jr.
Leading Knight

Elk of the Month

This month's honor goes to Bob Barrett.

Bob is an outstanding member who is willing to step up wherever he is needed. He is very dedicated to the success of Texas Hold'em by constantly volunteering whenever needed. He also takes great concern in the well-being of our lodge as he serves on the auditing committee that has even gone to get a better understanding of bingo at the Rock.

Congratulations Bob and keep up the good work.

Fraternally yours,
Joe Morawski Jr.
Leading Knight
