Message from fellow member: The Exalted Ruler

Greetings Members,

I would like to congratulate and welcome Diane Rogers to the position of Loyal Knight. I feel that she will be a great asset to our Lodge.

The month of September was a very busy one, with cruise nights were a great time with all the cars and cook-out thanks to the cooks and everyone that help run it and make them such a successful time for all that attended.

We had the District Deputy and his Suite conduct the inspection of the Lodge, they attended a Lodge meeting. We received a favorable rating from them thanks to all that helped us achieve this rating.

Bob Vitulli and Rich Hoon and helpers put on a Fish Fry. Thanks to all that made this function such a success, which was followed by Meat Bingo, also a successful function.

Some of the other functions were the Soccer Shoot with over 40 children participating in this contest. Thanks to all that helped run this function.

We also had the Hawaiian Luau put on by Dean Landry and Crew. Thanks to all that made this event a fun and successful function.

In house Darts started on September 20th. If anyone wishes to play please contact Hank Shepard.

There are other events happening in September and October, check out the schedule posted at the Lodge.

Remember only you and other members can make any and all the events and your lodge a success. Please try to attend. Your suggestions are needed and welcomed.

In closing, Please remember our members and service personal that are protecting us and our country to keep our home a safe place to live, a small Prayer goes a long way. "God Be With Them and All Elks"

Yours in Elkdom,
Dave Mulchahey
Exalted Ruler

Our State Project

It's always nice when giving back results in a tangible, visible positive experience for others. And for the Elks, nowhere is that result more visible than at Copper Cannon Camp in Bethlehem.

Copper Cannon has wrapped up yet another unforgettable summer camp season, and thanks in large part to volunteers and donors from the New Hampshire Elks. It was one of the most successful summers to date.

The camp was able to provide a free traditional summer camp experience for more than 450 low-income campers from all around the state. Campers had the opportunity to participate in archery, arts and crafts, hiking, swimming, ziplining and plenty of other activities while learning new skills and making new friends. The campers got three quality meals a day and also took home a free t-shirt, books and school supplies for the upcoming year.

Over the past 49 years, Copper Cannon has been able to provide that free summer camp experience to more than 20,000 youth from around the state, thanks to the generosity and hard work of individuals and organizations such as the Elks Club.

In 1969, the New Hampshire State Elks designated Copper Cannon Camp to be its major state project, and has been serving the mission of the camp ever since. Over the past year alone, the State Elks combined with efforts of individual lodges to donate nearly $29,000 to the camp.

But the Elks' impact on Copper Cannon comes in much more than just monetary form. Volunteers at Elks lodges all around the state served as recruiters for the camp, finding local children who qualified for the camp and were excited to attend, and assisting them in the application process. The lodges helped provide transportation and chaperoned the buses and vans each weekend.

Copper Cannon also hosts multiple Elks clean-up days at camp where members have the opportunity to help provide aesthetic and practical improvements with projects around camp.

The camp's founder, Hamilton Ford, overcame an underprivileged childhood and vowed that he would one day give less fortunate children the opportunity for a meaningful outdoor camp experience. In 1963, that dream became a reality and the camp evolved into what it is today.

For more information on volunteering or donating to Copper Cannon Camp, visit www.coppercannon.org, call 603-823-8107.
