EXALTED RULERS MESSAGAGE

Last month I wrote that winter was off to a slow start and here in February we seem to be getting a couple snow storms a week. I'd like to remind everyone that the snow removal for the walkways at the lodge is our responsibility as members, the side door, the lower level entrance and both the main walkway to the function hall as well as the southern exit all must be cleared of snow by fire code. Anyone passing by with a couple minutes to spare please lend a hand.

The election of officers took place at the last meeting, you have elected Gina Lincoln, Exalted Ruler, Thomas Howard, Leading Knight, Brooks Wilkie Loyal Knight, Michael Bownes, Lecturing Knight, Wayne Superchi, Secretary, Kevin Lincoln, Treasurer, William Dullea Trustee 1 Year, Robert Burhoe Jr., Trustee 2 Years, Brian Thibeault, Trustee 3 years, David Thorne Sr. Esquire, John Daly, Tiler, Kyle Underwood, Inner Guard and James Krull, Chaplain. I would like to wish all of our officers a good year and thank them for taking on the burden of operation of our lodge for the ensuing year.

Installation of Officers will be conducted by members of the Past Exalted Rulers Association at 7:00 PM on March 31st at the Lodge. All are encouraged and welcome to attend.

The State Hoop Shoot was held in Portsmouth on February 1st. As noted in last month's newsletter, we had four school children attend this competition. I am proud to announce that Leia Brunt (12-13 year old girl) and Kiara Brown (8-9 year old girl) will be representing Plymouth Lodge at the Regional Hoop Shoot on March 28th in Portland Maine. Sally and I will be attending to support these young athletes.

Save the Date! The annual Officer of the Year Elks of the Year Dinner Dance is scheduled for April 11th. More details will be forthcoming in next month's newsletter.
